

Grad Bio – Graduation Ceremonies

This will be read as you walk to collect your diploma at Graduation ceremonies on Saturday, June 15, 2019. The following are some examples. NOTE: the length, tone, and content.

SAMPLE 1: Samantha Leduc-Viscusi usually has her nose in a book. She plans to travel the globe, just not in her '86 Park Avenue Buick.

SAMPLE 2: Graeme McClintock is known for playing guitar. Next year, he will attend John Abbott in social science and pursue a career in business.

SAMPLE 3: Cory Ovans is known for his charming and charismatic personality and for being exceptionally punctual with all of his schoolwork (said sarcastically).

SAMPLE 4: Andrea Soesbergen lives in her cowboy boots and writes songs the whole school sings. She'll study Health Sciences at Marianopolis.

SAMPLE 5: Vanessa Templeton will be remembered for randomly singing in the halls and having constant hiccups. She'll be at Abbott in Language and Literature.

SAMPLE 6: "Mad" Max Bruner is extremely tall and loves fluffy kittens. He's going to John Abbot College, to major in Babe Studies.

Step 1) Flesh out your ideas with some of the headings on the backside of this page.

Step 2) Put it all together so it reads like one of the samples above and write it out HERE including your name:

Step 3) EITHER type up this grad bio and email it to msauve@nfsb.qc.ca with the subject message: grad bio OR hand in this paper to M. Sauve (or leave in her mailbox in staffroom).

DUE: Friday May 17th, 2019

It can be hard to write up ‘nice’ things to say about yourself. So, brainstorm with some friends and think about some of these questions. Keep in mind, it’s very short, and it helps to pass the time while everyone gets their diplomas; also the audience can get to know each of you a tiny bit. They can be entertaining and warm and informative – but not inappropriate or vulgar. Remember, your grandparents are listening...and Ms. Sauve is censoring ... ahem... editing them.

What are some of your personal qualities? (eg. ruggedly handsome, flirtatious, freckly, brainiac, babe-alicious, twerksome, etc) You may exaggerate! Let your personality shine!

What might you be remembered for? (i.e. sports, community groups, volunteering, tutoring, arts, making inappropriate comments in class, a boisterous laugh, clowning around, always having a smile on your face, etc):

Future plans (whether real or imaginary, short-term or long, academic or otherwise):
